FOREST GLEN WINERY

EST. 1992 | LODI, CALIFORNIA

Brand & Collection Overview

California Heritage. Family Crafted.

Crafting reserve wines from Sonoma, and California wines cellared and bottled in Lodi for everyday enjoyment.

Production began in Geyserville, in the heart of Sonoma County wine country, in 1990. Forest Glen introduced its first wines in the fall of 1992: a Sonoma County Cabernet Sauvignon and a barrel-fermented California Chardonnay. These are historical milestones; the current collection is cellared and bottled in Lodi, California.

Forest Glen carries its heritage forward through expressive fruit, balanced structure, thoughtful oak character, and a polished, approachable style. Premium quality within reach.
